

What are your fees?

We charge our customers a yearly certification fee based on the amount of plastic they are offsetting. Therefore, the less plastic they use, the cheaper the certification.

Yearly certification is required to continue to use our ecolabel and other branding.

Our fees are used to:

- Conduct due diligence, verification and internal auditing of impact partners to verify environmental and social impact.
- Conduct business administration, communication and marketing to scale the Plastic Neutral concept worldwide.
- Develop our service offering, website and offset platform.
- Allow us to continue to research and explore market leading technologies and projects for offsets and circular economy innovation.

Our mission is to have the largest social and environmental impact possible. Our fees allow us to be financially self-sustainable and to build a long lasting business that will play a pivotal role in solving the plastics crisis.
